The Wayne County Historic Society's mission is to preserve and educate; providing experiences that reflect the cultural heritage of Wayne County. Our objectives are to collect, preserve, and display historical material; to provide educational outreach to hundreds of school children each year; to operate a museum campus of eight (8) buildings; to provide county historical markers (478 to date); and to provide special events, exhibits, and tours. It is managed by a Board of Trustees and operated by all "volunteers". Tours may be scheduled for Friday or Saturday (1-4 p.m.) by calling our museum office (330) 264-8856 (open Tue. & Fri., 1-4 p.m.).

Benefits:

1. Free admission ($5/person value) to museum campus (eight buildings) during normal tour hours.
2. Quarterly Newsletter
3. Invitation to Quarterly Membership Meetings and Annual Membership Meeting/Banquet in April.
4. First notification of exhibits; special events, lectures and workshops.
5. Discounted ticket prices for all events, excluding fundraisers.
6. Museum Gift Shop - 10% discount on merchandise
7. Corporate/Business Member Sponsors receive Benefits #2, 3, & 4; Certificate of Appreciation; Guest Passes to museum, One-time use (for family, employees, etc.), a $5/person value; Silver members–5 passes, Gold members–10 passes, Platinum members–15 passes, Life-50 passes.
